

TAB

SUMMATION OF FOREIGN SERVICE RETIREMENT PROVISIONS

Coverage (1)	Voluntary Retirement				Other Than Voluntary Retirement
	Age (2)	Minimum Years Service (3)	Maximum Credit- able Years Service (4)	Computation of Annuity (5)	Retirement for disabili- ty or incapacity in- curred in line of duty	Death
1. Foreign Service Officers	50	20	30	2% of average salary not exceeding $13,500 for 5 years next preceding date of retirement, multiplied by number of years of service not exceeding 30 years, or, If participant has been married for 3 years or if there is issue of marriage, he may elect reduced annuity in accordance with statutory formulas for himself and provide for annuity after his death to widow for her life, or, If participant is unmarried or married to wife not entitled to annuity he may accept reduced in accordance with statutory formulas and provide annuity after his death to a person of his designation.	Minimum Service (6)	Computation of Annuity	Minimum Service (8)	Computation of Annuity (9)
2. Any chief of mission, not otherwise entitled to coverage, who: a. Has served as chief of mission for an aggregative period of 20 years or more, exclusive of extra sum credit for service at unhealthful posts b. Has paid into Retirement and Disability Fund a special contribution equal to 5% of basic salary for each year of such service with interest thereon to date of payment compounded annually at 4%.					5 years	If disability or incapacity occurs after less than 20 years service but more than 5, annuity computed as in column 5 on assumption participant had 20 years service.	5 years	Widow if married for 3 years or mother of issue of marriage, receives annuity equal to amount she would have received if husband had retired on date of death or had elected reduced joint and survivorship annuity, unless she elects to have contributions returned. If participant had less than 20 years' service, annuity is computed as though he had 20
3. All other persons making contributions to Retirement and Disability Fund as of November 13, 1946.								